

Design Rationale for REQ6:

Toad is a concrete class that extends from the abstract actor class. The player class creates an instance of the Toad class hence there is an association between the two classes. Application class on the other hand, uses an instance of toad as a parameter hence there is a dependency.

In our initial design, we did not take into account that fact that toad would ect